GOD IS LOVE AND NOTHING ELSE

—PRAISE THE LORD.

SUMMERSET, July 1, 1887.

DEAR INTERIOR:—Don't expect long letters this morning, for if you do you will be disappointed. Fresh and blood can't bear up, pen in hand, for long, with the thermometer in the "midst" and the perspiration beading the brow, behind which, science affirms, one's "think" lies. Mine seems to be crisp with heat this morning and incapable of little more than an effort to curl up and seek a shady nook, where recuperation waits in expectation.

Let me see, where were we when last heard from? In dear old Kirsaville. I never thought I should become so attached to the dear little burg. But I know the folks who live in and about it now, and it will ever be as beautiful a spot in our itinerant lives and grateful hearts as its charming stretch of landscape on every side will remain in memory as a delight to the eye. Before we left the dear LORD had everything His own way. The last two days we shifted into the beautiful Christian church, where last Sunday morning we broke bread in happy fellowship and heard an excellent sermon from Brother Billie, who rides all the way from Lincoln to minister to this people. Per contra, Bro. Elliott, who lives in Kirsaville, was away off in Turnersville doing the same for the Lincolns. Took the liberty of telling Bro. Billie that he had mistaken his calling, as I once did. If I know a born evangelist when I see one, he is that; and as I can't bear to see a "go preach" man in a "go preach" place, I made bold to speak to him after the sermon of Sunday morning, the only one I ever heard him preach. Bro. Elliott greatly befriended us at Kirsaville, and we are very warmly attached to him and his charming family. He has a fine school in the place and his imposing buildings are a very decided feature in the little village.

I think the general consensus of opinion was very clear—that great good had been done during the ten days that our meeting lasted. The devil "left town" for a few days at least; and although he will not fail to come back and start the old damaging reports that "Barnes is doing harm; breaking up the churches; teaching universalism; ruining everything," etc., etc., I think no one will truthfully deny that we won our left, and while we were there, everybody seemed to love everybody else; antagonism took a back seat; heavenly charity was the order of the day; and there were more happy faces and light hearts in Kirsaville than for many a day. If these are devils "fruit," I don't know a gospel crop when I see it. I think our gospel is entitled to this credit mark, at least—that all the raw comers before we came to a place and after we leave it. While the meeting lasts all is joy and peace. Verb, sup, sat.

We took our last dinner where we had our first—at our good friend Joe Eabry's. Then the whole family, including the little pet of the county, Elizabeth, went with us to the Paint Lick depot. There we joined us from Richmond, on the 4 P. M. train, and we all went on to Stanford. At Lowell our kind friend had a cool jug full of the delicious sulphur water that "grows there," and at Lancaster quite a crowd of "tried and true" ones awaited our arrival. So we got, in installments of love, the "100 fold in this life," repayment of all the little things we have counted it a joy to relinquish, here, for HIS dear name's sake.

At Stanford Bro. Barnes took all care of baggage transfer for eight miles to the Cincinnati Southern railroad off our minds. This genuine bit of kindness may the dear LORD reward him for. It is a prodigious difference between handing your checks into a friend's hand, who lifts the burden for you, and the sweat and fret of doing the baggage business yourself. When we got to McKinney the next day, there were our eight trucks "all in a row," "right side up with care" and not a bit of trouble to us. This kind of friendship is worth a bushel of empty talk. Thank you again, "Brother Liege."

Abundant vehicles bore us out to Pink Cottage for the night. Pleasant words and smiling faces all along old Stanford streets told us plainly we had lots of friends left in the ever dear spot, where we lived so long. Arrived at the Cottage, while the ladies went in for a "rinse," with cool cistern water, I wandered around the premises, where I had practiced Solomon in days gone by. It was all very familiar, only everything seemed larger, as was to have been expected. The mere twigs of my planting were now stately trees in full fruit-bearing, and the forest saplings I had spared in clearing out the acre lot were great umbrageous groves, most marvelously increased in size. I went over it all; along every garden walk; through the spire; in the orchard; among the many varieties of grapes—once my pride—and then went into the house, praising the LORD that Jim Wray owned it and not I. Every one to his culling. Mine to "go preach;" and I am glad of this brief visit to the Pink Cottage; chiefly for the demonstration it gave me that not one lingering hankering remains that leans even towards the renewal of ownership of the little place. It is mighty pretty; a lovely home; only I have something better. As President Lincoln said to the poet, whose feelings he didn't want to hurt, after he had read his wearisome effusions to him and asked his candid opinion of their merits: "For those who like that sort of thing, I should say it is just the sort of thing they would like." So if I had nothing better, I should like to settle at the Pink Cottage again. But evangelism is what I like best and every one to his "druthers." Till we get to the jumping up (not "off") place, let me press the "good tidings."

We had a delightful time at the Cottage, just because no "fond regrets" came in to lend their bitterness to the pure pleasure we enjoyed in being with our friends.

Mr. Fox, photographer, came over from Danville and got negatives of the Pink Cottage and visitants in various combinations, for which I was very glad, as it is not at all likely the entire family will again gather in the old familiar spot. The "Barnes Troupe" with the Pink Cottage decidedly in the background, is a typically sketch, that is full of deep meaning to me, at least.

We came on to Somerset the next day, arriving at about 3 P. M., and rumbled up the rocky pike to town in the "bus" to find the old burg about what we left it six years ago. What improvements have taken place are mostly in the direction of the railway station, a mile below, and the suburbs, in the shape of a few pretty new residences. But the "public square" holds its own most gallantly and seems resolutely bent on reminding old friends that they may always calculate on finding one familiar spot, if no more, whenever they come to town in all future time. Peculiarly conservative is the old ramshackle hotel building, where I rested my weary bones 30 years ago, after a hot ride in the stage over the well-remembered "corduroy rail-road" that in those primitive days tried men's souls and bodies, when they came to Somerset. One compensation awaited them en route, the fried chicken, corn bread and buttermilk they served to travelers a mile or two beyond Wayneburg. Talk of "ambrosia" and "nectar!" What were they to hungry mortals in comparison with these roadside viands? As the weary, sweating horses broke into a languid trot and we clattered up in a cloud of red dust, the scream of captured chickens saluted our ears and awoke all the cannibal within us. In 15 minutes they were on the table, danked by a bowl of gravy; a plate of such hoe-cakes as I de pair of ever seeing again; and a great pitcher of fresh buttermilk right from the cool spring house. I think we got all for a "quarter." It would have been cheap at double the price. That has passed away. The railroad spurs not such pleasing episodes in life's weary journey. It has thundered over the life of that humble wayside inn, long ago, but I am not going, ungratefully, to forget it. And it is with something like respect I look out of my window at the Hicks House and see my ancient hotel on the public square across the way, standing in its grim dilapidation as a sort of sturdy protest against the spirit of modern improvements, introduced by the sporting monster a mile away. I hear the old property is in "chancery," which will give it a fresh lease of undisturbed life, if it be true; and the lawyers are also true to the traditions of Jarodice vs Jarodice. Candor, however, compels me to add that it is not ornamental.

The court house, where the meetings are held, is still better, as an audience-room, than it was when we were here before. It is a noble structure, with clock tower, so gorgeous bell and all complete. The seats have been raised and admirably arranged since Judge Morrow's "new room" has come into operation and nothing could be more desirable as a place of public assembly than it now is.

Our dear old friends, the Hicks, took us in, at some personal inconvenience, I fear, but with heartiest welcome. Frank Matthews, our right hand man at Tupelo, awaited our arrival at the same place. He is on a furlough, visiting his family for a week or two. Right glad were we to shake his hearty hand again.

The meetings thus far are a glorious success. I have seen no such attendance in afternoon meetings as greets us these hot days, when 3 o'clock comes; and at night, the great room is well packed. The heat is suffocating there; what with the great crowd, the hot lamps and the close atmosphere outside; but the dear LORD holds me up in the fainting work of preaching with might and main, for the orthodox hour or more. Why not take it quietly and preach shorter sermons? If you saw this hungry people you would not ask me the question twice. O, how my heart goes out for them as I look upon their earnest, attentive countenances and mark how every word of the TRUTH is caught up so eagerly. It would put fresh life and vigor into a half dead preacher, if he had his work at heart; or convert one who "cared not for the sheep," if anything would.

We find lots of old friends and daily increasing evidence that our labor of six years ago was "not in vain in the LORD." Praise HIM for all! Ever in Jesus, GEO. O. BARNES.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Miss Fannie Wallace, of Paint Lick, is visiting relatives here.

—Mrs. Mollie Lovell, of Louisville, is visiting relatives here.

—The public school of this place will open Monday, 11th inst.

—Dr. Davis has moved his office to Court house and J. W. Brown now occupies the one vacated by the doctor.

—Tobias Sowder died at Mareburg Wednesday from a mangled foot. Henry Hargard died from carbuncle at Gum Sulphur Wednesday.

—Those to whom you extend the greatest number of favors are your bitterest enemies when you discontinue being imposed upon further by them.

—"Twindle Welsh," a valuable dog, and a mowing machine came together in Mr. Proctor's meadow Wednesday. All the boys in town attended the funeral.

—Mr. James Houk, while assisting in moving some of the debris of the old jail, a few days since, had a large nail run through his hand making a painful wound.

—Harvey Rowe, while standing around looking at the works at Nesbit's saw mill Monday, stepped too near the main drive belt and had his leg badly cut to the bone just above the knee.

—Will the Central Journal give the name of that Rockcastle man who has "700 young turkeys large enough to fly up on the fence and will have 700 more to hatch within a few days?"

—To get a large stock of new goods will require money. Those indebted to me will please come in and pay a part of their account if not in full. Goods still sold at low prices. L. B. Adams.

—C. B. Eggleman and Alvah Pullins, of Garrard, passed down the road home from East Bernstadt Monday where they had been to conclude a large coal deal.

—The new suit that Attorney Brown is sporting is not a present from his admiring friends, but they came into his possession from his wise judgment and admirable foresight during a recent visit to the city where he happened to pass the Exchange when the mason races were going on.

—Miss Anna Higgins is visiting Mrs. S. W. Parris. Miss Maggie Adams, of Garrard, is visiting Miss Ella Joplin. Mrs. Chas. Turner and children, of Louisville, are at Miss Ida Adams'. Mr. C. S. Nield, of Altamont, was called, by telegraph, to Harrodsburg Tuesday on account of the sudden death of his father.

—Tuesday evening William Pease left town in company with a man named George Baker, who lives near Woodstock. On reaching Cummins' Spring about three miles south-west of this place they got into a difficulty in which Pease received a slash in the back from a knife in the hands of Baker. A Mr. Lewis, ploughing in a field half a mile away, was the only witness. When he went to the scene of the difficulty he found Pease with a deep cut in the back just above the hip and bleeding profusely. Dr. Davis was called in and dressed the wound. Pease and Baker were drinking.

—Gads for fighting cocks are about one and one half inch long. A spear of highest tempered steel is welded out of a short circular stock. The spear is a little bigger around than a dancing needle and sharper pointed. The stock is set into a soft leather band about one by two and a half inches to be laced around the bird's leg. One square strike through the head with a spur lays a dead cock in the pit every time. The best gads cost $10, the set of four, two to each bird. These are American made. The cheapest cost $2.50 the set. —[New York Sun.]

It is announced that Judge Holt, of the Appellate Court, has come out as a prohibitionist. He says that since he came on the bench, three years ago, 85 per cent. of criminal cases before that Court have been directly attributed to the curse of liquor, and that as a Christian man, having both the temporal and eternal welfare dear to him, he cannot longer uphold, by either word or precept, the leading cause of its degradation. —[Paris News.]

The month of June was the warmest and driest than the same month for fourteen years past. The average mean temperature reported from the signal office was 75.4°, while the average mean temperature for 14 years past was 74.7°. The rain fall reported from the signal service at Louisville was 1.79 inches. The mean average for the same for the 14 years previous was 2.71.

Two sailors of a wrecked Gloucester schooner were adrift on the ocean for six days without a morsel of food or drop of water. After trying all imaginable experiments to allay their thirst, one man cut his arm in order that they might drink his blood, but blood would not flow. They were picked up shortly afterward.

A bullet aimed at Miss Gray, of St. Louis, lodged in her bustle. Now is the time to subscribe. —[Garrettsville Times.]

CRAB ORCHARD, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—The bar-room at the Springs closed on the glorious 4th and it is to be hoped there will never be another one in Lincoln county.

—Young Jim Hiatt, who was shot by the sheriff's posse, continues very low and no hopes of his recovery are entertained.

—We now have a regular night mail, which is opened at the office about 7 in the morning. It is quite a treat to receive the I. J. so soon after publication.

—After business was attended to at the Good Templars lodge last Tuesday night the members treated themselves to ice and cake and a very social hour was thus enjoyed.

—Mrs. D. B. Elmiston has been very sick for more than a week. Mrs. A. Rhinehart, who has had a spell of malarial fever, is about well again. Little Jennie Evans continues quite ill as Mr. J. H. Hutchings' and is entirely blind. Rev. J. G. Livingston is on the sick list.

—Died, on Monday last, at Maywood, Mrs. Chris Hutchinson, of this place. Her remains were interred in the burying-ground on Mr. S. B. Pennington's farm. Also on Tuesday last Mrs. Joe Chandler, daughter of Mr. Opie Lindsay, died at his home near town, after a lingering illness.

—The 4th of July celebration at Dripping Springs was well represented from here and other points. As is always the case, everybody thoroughly enjoyed themselves and the excellent fare was a very prominent feature. The shooting tournament at the Crab Orchard Springs was also enjoyed by a goodly crowd. A splendid brass band arrived there on the night of the 21st.

—Mr. D. B. Carson and wife, of Tennessee, are the guests of his sister, Mrs. Brooks. Mr. Tim W. Higgins, of Louisville, paid a short visit to his brother, Mr. W. M. Higgins. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clifford stopped off here a few days on their return from the city. Mrs. Mary Douglas and son, Charles, from Danville, are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Hannah Steger, of Louisville, is a guest at the Harris House.

—Mrs. George Evans' funeral was preached at the Baptist church last Tuesday afternoon by Rev. John R. James. The house was full, for relatives and friends came from far and near to pay the last tribute to the one whom they had loved so well in life. Mrs. Evans will not only be missed in the family circle, but in the social circle as well and in the church where she was a constant and devoted member. Since her young daughter, Jennie, was examined by the doctors and she was told that there was no hope for her recovery, her health has been on a steady decline. Last week she was stricken down at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. J. H. Hutchings, and on Monday last her spirit returned to God, who gave it. It is strikingly sad that she should be called home just now, when her little daughter needs so greatly a mother's watchful care and attention. The grief-stricken family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. The remains were followed to Lancaster by a long procession of relatives and friends.

—BLUSHING BEAUTY AT THE BALL.—Miss Sallie McNeill was rigged out as pretty as a red and green wagon with two spring seats, and made more rushes than a few. She had on a blue dress with a red flap at the side and a pretty something or other on the other side. Miss Sue Sharp wore an en train rig, and could have knocked Mr. Lantry silly when it comes to good looks. Her hair was so cut and her face in powder. She had sixteen rings on one finger and bracelets clean to her elbow. Little Birdie Bloom was "the daintiest darling of all," in white toggery of some sort, looped up in spots. She wore hand-painted gloves and slippers and "posamentary" jewelry. Miss Dorothy reminded one of a double rainbow, and was the belle of the occasion. It's a cold day when Lizzie Ann Dorsey gets left at a ball, and she was at her best last night. —[Mountain Screecher.]

When a young lady is possessed of a goodly shape and well rounded limbs the temptation to have one of those ravishing short dresses and a pair of fancy, low cut shoes is too great to be resisted. From the latter it must be inferred that her foot is moderately small and her ankles turned on aristocratic lines. Thus arrayed, many young ladies, if only passably fair to look upon, have been known to do great execution at short range, and sigh for other worlds to conquer. —[Pittsburgh Press.]

Drunkennes or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and today believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For full particulars, address GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race st., Cincinnati, O.

BILL Bradley has been cavorting over the State palming his false figures and statements on the public till he had grown so bold that he imagined no statement that he could make, however reckless, would be disputed. He tried the latter on Governor McCreary at Richmond, Monday, by charging that he was on Manson's staff at the Battle of Richmond. The governor very promptly denied the charge and stated in a very emphatic manner that any man who said he was, lied. This was a stunner to Bradley and in the excitement which ensued, young George Bradley, who has been going the rounds with his father, apparently as a body guard, to do his fighting if any became necessary, instead of rallying to the front and resenting the insult, quietly fell over and fainted and had to be taken to the fresh air to be revived. Bradley went out too, but returned shortly and finished his speech in a hurry, saying that he did not make the charge himself or he would not take the lie off any man. The valiant Colonel ought to have brought that $12 pistol into the game. What is the use of having such a thing on one's person if it is not for such emergencies as this? And, by the way, this reminds us that the Colonel will shoot if crowded, for we are told that upon one occasion he fired into the capacious pouch of Hon. Bully Mason, who was beating him over the head with a stick, and then took to his heels with the speed of a quarter horse. As old man Mason fell over and his friends gathered around him, thinking he was done for, he surprised them with the remark, which he made in deepest disgust, "Shot by a d—n Abolitionist, by G—d." He did not seem to care at all for the wound itself, but that it was inflicted by a d—n abolitionist gave him the keenest pain. All of which goes to prove that Bradley will shoot if crowded, and we advise those who think he won't, not to get fooled like the honorable ex-representative of Garrard.

JUDGE FOX claimed that the race for governor was between him and Buckner, with Bradley far in the rear. The Judge is either woefully mistaken or is intent on deception. He has about as much show in the race as a short tail bull in fly time. The effect of his candidacy, whether so intended or not, will be in the interest of Bradley, who would himself be hardly in the race, but for the fact that numerous misguided persons who have heretofore acted with the democracy will go off on a single idea that has no place whatever in politics. A vote for Fox is a vote thrown away and we urge upon those who call themselves democrats to stick to the old ship, which has carried them safely so far, and not desert it for side issues that can better be attended to inside that without the party.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND does not seem much frightened by the Grand Army's ravings, at least he pays about as little attention to their demands as if they did not think themselves the "Great I am." The other day the Veteran's Rights Union called on him to have a certain ex-soldier reinstated who had been discharged by the superintendent at the California mint, but the president told them respectfully and firmly that he supposed the superintendent knew what he was about and would not have had the man discharged without sufficient cause. You can't scare your uncle Grover worth a cent.

The republicans claim that Bradley was badly treated at Richmond. It doesn't look so from this distance. When a man tells an untruth he ought not to think hard if he is told of it. There were no grounds for Bradley's statement concerning McCreary and the latter would not have been the man we know him to be, to sit calmly and not characterize it in strongest terms.

A DISPATCH says that General Lucius Fairchild, Commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., states positively that he is out of politics and that he will not be a candidate for President. Vice President or any other office. The old brute knows it is no use. His blasphemous, palsy speech ought to damn him here and through all eternity.

THE Louisville Commercial, which is anti-Buckner, figures that he will be elected by a plurality of 32,000. This is the lowest estimate we have seen. From 40,000 to 50,000 seems to be the conceded vote under which the hero of Donelson will bury the warrior from Garrard.

A CRANK was arrested this week in Washington, who started out with the avowed intention of killing President Cleveland. The fraud and frenzy party, under the lead of Halestead, Foraker and Fairchild, are responsible for such creatures.

THE left leg of a farmer in Montgomery county has turned to stone, that is if Mulanion is to be depended upon.

THE Hart County News explodes the charge made by Fox and other prohibition speakers that Gen. Buckner hauled his workmen to the polls and made them vote against local option, by publishing the affidavits of the men themselves which say he did not even attempt to influence them in the matter and when asked by one of them about the matter he simply said it was a moral question upon which each man must vote as his conscience dictated. So falls another campaign lie.

JUDGE FOX made even a more reckless and unguarded arraignment of the democratic management of affairs in Kentucky than Bradley. None of his charges are borne out by the record or the facts and while he pretends to be as much opposed to the republican party, his candidacy is alone in its interest. Democrats who are worthy of the name will hesitate before casting a vote that will be equal to giving it to Bradley.

ALTHOUGH Mr. Bradley charges that the State is running down at the heel and capitalists are afraid to come here because of democratic mismanagement, the fact remains that since the first of January there have been invested in business enterprises in the State $21,710,000 against $17,220,700 last year. Bradley ought to let up on a figure; he gets himself in a tangle every time he attempts to use them.

THE prohibition nominee for Senate in the 17th district, D. T. Chestnut, was afraid the boys would ring the bell on him and has decided not to stand for election. Mr. Thornton, of Kennece, is spoken of for the position and it is said he could do up St. Paul, the republican candidate, in style.

THE ge-lorious 4th seems to have been pretty generally celebrated, but with less loss of life and other casualties than usually attend the blow out. We read of but few persons who climbed the golden stair by the accident route on that day.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS

—Louisville will vote on local option at the August election.

—Ciel McElroy killed Green Penick near Lebanon; both negroes.

—Fire at Grafton, W. Va., destroyed 25 buildings. Loss $100,000.

—The Treasury surplus is expected to be reduced $36,000,000 by September.

—The Labor Party in Ohio has nominated a state ticket with John Seitz at the head.

—Since July 1 the government has paid out an average of $2,500,000 a day for pensions.

—An exploding toy cannon killed Tommie Gleason and blinded two other boys at Chicago.

—Frankfort by a vote of 1,600 decided to subscribe $150,000 to the Paris, Frankfort & Georgetown railroad.

—During the hot spell people are dying at the rate of 200 a day in New York and considerable alarm is felt.

—Dr. Waite's Indian show has jumped the State with an attachment for $5,000 hanging over it. It is just as well.

—Amos Neal, a Kentucky farmer, 14 miles from Covington, was killed, by lightning while digging in his potato patch.

—From January 1 to July 1 one hundred tornadoes occurred in the United States, but not one of them in Kentucky.

—Duncan F. Kenner, commissioner of the Confederate States in Europe during the war, died in New Orleans this week.

—Aeronaut Clavage fell from his balloon at Orleans, New York, and was killed. Another balloonist landed in the sea and came near being drowned.

—Henry Colston shot and perhaps fatally wounded his uncle, Joel Wootton, in Scott county. The trouble grew out of a stock trespass.

—In some parts of New York city the price of soda water has not only dropped to two cents a glass, but the glass is twice the ordinary size.

—The prohibition law is now in force at Hopkinsville and a local paper says that whisky is shipped to that place in barrels labeled "bacon."

—James D. Reese, of Winchester, having been disappointed in love, jumped from a third story window of his father's hotel and was instantly killed.

—Judge Coleman, of Muhlenberg county, has shipped to keep from levying the railroad tax that the United States Court has ordered to be collected.

—A 4th of July rocket set fire to the Weber Brewing Company's malt house, Cincinnati, and the loss is estimated at $160,000. Two lives were lost.

—A bird released at Spartanburg, S. C., flew to Germantown, Pa., a distance of 510 miles, (air line) in 13 hours and one-half minute, the best record ever made.

—All of the 3 per cent loan of $302,250,000 has been redeemed but a little over eight millions and as all had been called to mature July 1, interest on that has ceased.

—A New York boy put a lighted cigarette into a pocket containing stolen dynamite cartridges, so that his mother would not see him smoke and he was blown to atoms.

—A son of August Coldewey and another of Claude Summers, of Louisville, took refuge in a hollow tree during a thunder storm, while out fishing, and were killed by lightning.

—In the last nine months about 15,000,000 pounds of tobacco—about 3 per cent. of the entire crop—have been destroyed in the United States. There is evidently a method in this reduction of the surplus.

—There is a split among the Ohio republicans. Foraker favors the nomination of Blaine, hoping that he may himself be put up for the vice-presidency and Sherman's friends are greatly disgruntled.

—A brakeman on the Greensburg Branch, E. W. Hagan, was shot by a negro named John Buckner, whom he attempted to prevent breaking the car door. The scamp made his escape, but was subsequently captured.

—Will Mar, of Litchfield, was called from bed by some one pretending to want a quart of whisky, and was assassinated in front of his store by James Lynch, whom he cowhided sometime ago in a difficulty about a woman.

—The summit of Mount Hood, the tallest snow covered peak in Oregon, 12,720 feet high, was illuminated on the 4th with 100 pounds of red fire. The light was visible 75 miles away. A party of 7 men performed the feat.

—As the result of a small race war in Morehouse Parish, La., two white men and twelve negroes have been killed and three white men wounded. The affair grew out of improper relations between a negro and a low white woman.

—Thomas N. Bateman, a private in the Second United States cavalry, shot and killed First Sergeant Samuel Sopher, of the same troop, in the barracks at San Francisco Tuesday morning. Bateman was from Flemingsburg, Ky.

—The town of Clarendon, Pa., was burned Tuesday, only one house being left standing. Over 11,000 homeless people are camped on the hills near by. The town was set on fire by a saloon keeper because a judge had refused to reverse a local option order.

—Secretary Eadicot has issued an order against any information being furnished to the press from the records of the war department until it has first been submitted to him and its publication approved by him. The old incompetent believes in all the red tape possible.

—Ernest Fasy, cashier of the Bank of Adairville, Logan county, is the latest bank official to go wrong and run away. His shortage is expected to reach perhaps $10,000 and is believed to have been brought about by habits of dissipation into which he fell about 18 months ago.

—Bowling G. Dunn, of Logan county, 58 years of age, was out with the boys the other day practicing rifle shooting. There were 7 in the party, the target was placed 75 feet off, and uncle Bowling came within half an inch of driving the centre. This was the best shot made.

—The democratic convention of Carter and Elliott counties resolved "in favor of the next legislature submitting to the people of Kentucky a law prohibiting the sale, as a beverage, spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, to be ratified or rejected by the qualified voters of the State." This is impossible under the present constitution.

—The democrats now have almost entire control of the Federal offices. Out of 2,359 Presidential postoffices, 2,600 are held by democrats. Out of 52,609 postmasters of the fourth class, 45,000 have been changed, the remainder being too small and inconsequential to be desired. Out of a possible 111 collectors of customs the democrats have 100, and of 55 collectors of internal revenue 54.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

—A nice shower on Wednesday brought smiles to the faces of our people.

—The "Tit Willow" base ball club of Lancaster went to Stanford yesterday to do up the club there.

—The National Bank of Lancaster declared a dividend of 4 per cent. out of the earnings of the last six months.

—H. Clay Hamilton has had a nick el planted for four months and on yesterday when he examined it it had not even sprouted. He attributes it to the long drouth.

—Terra Cotta is still winning, and Nath Woodcock says he is dead sure to win the "Finality" stakes on the 16th. His victory over Miss Ford Monday was received with much pleasure by his friends here.

—Judge Morrow, failing to get here for the special term of his court on Tuesday, H. C. Kaufman was elected to preside which he did in a very able manner. John Bryant was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for stealing.

—Next Thursday is the barbecue and the spears are ready, the trenches dug, the vegetables gathered, the burgoo kettles in readiness, the speakers loaded with sound democratic facts, the bands are prepared to play and the people expectant.

—Sound the bold anthem,
 The war dogs are howling,
 The proud bird of liberty
 Screams through the air.

—Miss Mollie Bardett left on Wednesday for Parkville, where she will join Miss Sallie Hocker and go on a visit with her to North Salem, Ind. Mrs. B. F. Hudson and Miss Minnie Walker went to the Chattanooga at Lexington on the 4th. They report a delightful time. W. S. Ferguson and sister, Miss May, went to Covington on Wednesday morning. Miss Sara Anderson is at home from Versailles. Hugh Logan has gone to Cincinnati. Mrs. Mildred Moore, wife of C. D. Moore, has been made a fairs sole. J. B. McFerran and Robert Harding, Esq., of Danville were in our city yesterday. Capt. Mike Suter is down with the rheumatism. W. S. Miller, J. H. Brown and W. G. Anderson went to Cynthiana yesterday to drink burgoo and get strengthened in the democratic faith. Lieut Russell and sister have returned to their home in Missouri. J. G. Sweeney, and son Oscar are in Cincinnati. Misses Mollie Compton, Emma Crenshaw, of Independence, Mo., and Katie Cird, of Burgin, are visiting at Mrs. R. H. Fox's. W. B. Mason returned Wednesday from Chicago. He saw Terra Cotta run on Monday and says he came under the wire in an easy gallop looking up at the people in the grand stand and nodding familiarly to his Kentucky friends.

DRIPPING SPRINGS.

—Among our latest arrivals are Mrs. Dr. Lee F. Huffman and Miss Annie Cook, of Stanford; Mrs. R. J. Lyle, Nashville, Tennessee; Mrs. Katie McKinney, Mr. Vernon, Ill. H. P. Loveland, Chicago, Ill. A. H. Rice and lady, Lancaster; Messrs. C. A. Greed, J. M. Helm and W. L. Roberts, Mitchellburg, Messrs. Welby Burgen and C. B. Prather, A. E. Yelton and Joe Carr, Louis P. Todd and Frank Carr, all of Richmond; Messames Phillips, Warren, Rogers and Miss Emma Rogers, of Lebanon; Misses Rice, Hacker and Million, of Richmond, Mrs. Irwin, Louisville; Miss Kent, Louisville, and a great many others. At present the ladies greatly outnumber the gents and what we need is more gentlemen dancers. We have a splendid Italian band and have a dance every night. Tuesday and Friday nights are public nights and everybody invited on those nights. There will be a dozen couples out from Crab Orchard Springs to-night.

—Towards the close of the present month I will give a grand banquet and "select" picnic and ball and will set the finest dinner in the ball room ever given by any watering place in Kentucky. From this date no one will be allowed to bring dinners here. Everybody is welcome to come and see the place, but those who come to spend the day must patronize the hotel. A large number of guests are to arrive within the next ten days from all over the State and from the South.

—Our three days' picnic was a success in every particular, notwithstanding the cloudy rainy weather, we had a crowd of from 300 to 700 persons each day.

—If you are sick and want to get well or if you want to have the best time you ever had in your life, come to Dripping Springs. D. G. SLAUGHTER.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY

—The Colored State Teachers' Association is in session here.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Cohen, of Anderson county, are visiting the family of William Moreland.

—William Couch caught a German carp in Jerry Caldwell's pond Wednesday that weighed over 19 pounds. He bit at a craw fish.

—The trained monkeys employed by Smith & Murphy and Perkins & Chrisman in their hemp factories are to be given a picnic by their appreciative employer next week.

—Terra Cotta won the Sheridan stakes worth $4,800 at Chicago on Monday beating Miss Ford, Jim Gore, Wary, Montrose, Procrastinator and Hard Times—1 1/2 miles, time 2:10 1/2.

—Grand Chancellor Rudy will to-night install the newly elected officers of Utopia Lodge, No. 33, Knights of Pythias, after which the members of the Lodge will give him a complimentary banquet at the Clemens House.

—John Hayes, the young man shot a few days ago by Sam Moore, is reported by his physician, Dr. W. A. Brown, to be progressing favorably. The shooting was done with squirrel shot. The top of the hip bone was shot off.

—The membership of the colored Cumberland Presbyterian church is not a large one but a very earnest one. Elder Benjamin Kincaid conducted the services Wednesday night when his congregation consisted of Reuben Oswley.

—John Henry Briscoe, half witted negro, shocked the modest inhabitants of 21 street several days ago by appearing there in a state of complete nudity. When arrested he gave as an excuse that he was infested with vermin and not being able to get rid of them in any other way, he went down to Clark's Rin and took off his clothes, threw them in, took a bath and then came back up town. Some of John Henry's colored friends gave him a shirt and a pair of pants upon the condition that he keep them free from insects.

In our own individual case we find that we can do our whole duty by our political party and at the same time fight the liquor traffic without clashing our political and our moral principles. The one is the work of patriotism and the other the work of morality. And both work harmoniously together. As for the political prohibition party, we never did take any stock in it. It is nothing and amounts to nothing. As well take up any other social issue and galvanize it into a political issue. Had any other man than Font Fox been nominated for the governorship by his so called party he would be fighting it to day. It is a feeder to his vanity, and hence he is a political prohibitionist. He himself truly defines his position when he declares: "I am not a temperance man, but a political prohibitionist." And that clearly defines the difference between him and myself. We are a temperance man, but not a political prohibitionist. That position we have occupied for 20 years and it is a position we expect to occupy the remainder of our life. —[Grayson Gazette.

The prohibition party has never done anything as a party in Kentucky. Over one half of the counties have prohibitory laws, but this work has been done by keeping the question out of politics and letting the enemies of liquor in all parties and of all races pull together for one common end—the obliteration of the liquor traffic. The great parties of the nation are founded on principles, some of them as old as the government itself and the man who in his ardor as an advocate of prohibition is ready to sacrifice his professed principles and party affiliations and throw his vote away, can only be characterized as a crank or fanatic. —[South Kentuckian.

—There are said to be over 200,000 Americans in London.

visiting her sister, Miss Lona Lackey.

—MRS. EMMA SHILTON, of Marshall, Missouri, is visiting Miss Nellie Gaines.

—MRS. MARY BRAGO, of Mt. Vernon,
has been the guest of Mrs. J. J. Williams.

—MR. AND MRS. S. P. STAGG are visiting at Mr. Dan Stagg, Sr.'s, near Hustonville.

—MR. J. W. ALCOCK is slowly improving and will go to some watering place next week.

—MRS. S. C. TRUEHEART, of Millersburg College, is with her brother, Mr. S. S.
Myers.

—MRS. MARY LAWLESS SCOTT, of Crab Orchard, widow of Lt. John Scott, has been granted a pension.

—MRS. E. M. CARPENTER has been brought from Crab Orchard and is in a very critical condition.

—MISS MATTIE BOSLEY, of Lincoln, is visiting her brother, John L. Bosley, at the Central Hotel.—[Winchester Sun.]

—MRS. J. I. McKINNEY, after spending several days here and at Richmond, has gone to Dripping Springs for a month.

—MRS. K. A. HOPPER, of Lebanon, and her son, Hume Logan, of Louisville, have been visiting Misses Maggie and Jennie Hocker.

—MISS BLANCHE AND ANNIE GOOD-
ALL, of Nashville, are guests of Misses Mattie and Zella Williams on lower Main street.

—MRS. ROBT. J. LYLES, of Nashville,
and Mrs. Dr. Lee F. Huffman and Annie Cook went to Dripping Springs Wednesday
to spend some time.

—MAJOR JOHN GAULT, Master of Trains
on the L. & N., was here on business Wednesday. The Major had the honor of running the first regular passenger train to this place 21 years ago.

—MISS MADIE WHITE, of Middleway W. Va., one of the sweet little graduates of the last year of Mrs. Trueheart's principalship at the College here, is the guest of Miss Annie Alcorn.

—MESSRS. D. W. VANDEVER and Geo.
H. Bruce went to Shepherdsville yesterday to attend the trial of Pollock, the alleged car-robber. Mr. Robert S. Lytle is running the store in the absence of the former.

—DR. R. J. O'MAHONEY, the lively and capable Lexington representative of the Cincinnati Enquirer, who also holds a position on the Stock Farm, was here in the interest of the latter paper this week. He is both surprised and delighted with the beauty of our country.

—COL. JOHN K. FAULKNER, who has been appointed General Agent for the interior of Kentucky of the Penn Mutual Insurance Company, one of the greatest of American corporations, leaves to-day for Richmond, Madison county, which he will make his headquarters.—[Courier-Journal.]

LOCAL MATTERS.

FINE line of Candies just received at A.
A. Warren's.

THERE are over 100 visitors at Crab Orchard Springs now.

THE photographer, Louis Schlegel, will be here next Tuesday again to take pictures.

THE impromptu hop at Walton's Opera House Tuesday night was attended by about 20 couples, who enjoyed it till a late hour.

WE never saw chickens in greater demand than now. With the vegetables dried up, there is nothing left to eat but them and they are scarce at $2 a dozen. Our country friends should bring them in.

ANOTHER big sum of money is about to leave Lincoln county. Thirty nine thousand of the $50,000 capital stock of the bank that Messrs Jasper & Jones will establish in Texas has been secured here and the cry
is for more.

I HOPE all my customers will remember settling time. T. R. Walton.

THE postoffice at Junction City and Williamsburg have been made money order offices.

PARTIES having accounts with me will
please call and settle and greatly oblige.
A. A. Warren.

GUS SEIBERT's band passed up to Rock Castle Springs Tuesday and with it quite a number of guests.

LITTLE CLOYD, infant child of Mr. E. H.
Bryant, died Tuesday of whooping cough.
His mother, who was Miss Permelia Cloyd,
died last August shortly after its birth.

THE killing of the man Brinton by Jas.
McCarty at Jellico seems to have been entirely excusable. Brinton raised the row and shot at McCarty several times before he fired at all.

WE give fair warning to all who are indebted to us that if they do not come in and settle by July 15th, we will put the accounts in the hands of an officer for collection. Owsley & Craig.

I HAVE sold out my business at Junction
City and ask those indebted to me to please come forward and settle. An early settlement will save both of us trouble and expense as I will have to put my accounts in the hands of an officer if they are not paid
in a short while. J. W. Venardall.

AT last total prohibition prevails in Lincoln county, the only remaining saloon license expiring at midnight on the 4th. The effect of the law so far has been very gratifying. Let every good citizen see to it that the law is fully enforced. The political prohibitionists will go on doing all the damage to the cause they can.

THE name of the firm which is selling the Florence Washing Machine here is Morgan, McAllister and Rose. Mr. Wilson, who was mentioned in the place of Mr. N. G.
Morgan, is the inventor, but he is not here.
The company has given some exhibitions of the work of their machines
and they have surprised and gratified all who have seen them.

THE Lincoln County Teachers' Institute,
to be conducted by Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Centre College, will convene here next Wednesday, 13th, and continue in session
three days. It would be the proper thing for our citizens to provide homes for these hard worked and badly paid laborers in the cause of education and make their stay
among us as pleasant as possible.

NEXT Thursday, 14th, is the day set apart for the grand democratic rally and barbecue for this campaign district. Preparations will be made to feed 10,000 people and everybody is invited without money
and without price to go, eat of the good things and imbibe the genuine democratic doctrine that will be preached there on that day. Let all waverers make it a point to be there.

THE trustees of the Stanford Seminary
met Tuesday, and by a vote of four to three elected Prof. S. J. Pulliam principal of the school over Prof. Abner Rogers, who has held it so long and given so much satisfaction. Prof. Pulliam is a graduate of Centre College and during his year as teacher since, proved himself well qualified for the difficult duties of the school-room. The friends of Prof. Rogers will regret that he will no longer be one of us, but will wish him well wherever his lot may be cast.

THOSE democrats who are contemplating voting for Fox should think twice before deserting the good old party, which has withstood all efforts to replace it and which is bound by the very nature of affairs to continue to be dominant in this country.
There can be nothing whatever gained by voting for a prohibition candidate for governor. He stands no earthly chance of election and if democrats persist in throwing their votes away, the result in this county
will be a victory for the republican candidate, Bradley. As a temperance man as good as the best of them, we urge the democrats of Lincoln to stand by their colors and not allow our 400 or 500 majority to be thrown away. The republicans are not going to desert Bradley. Let democrats be equally true to party and cast their votes
for Simon Bolivar Buckner.

THE Lincoln County Stock Fair is an assured fact and we are asked to call a meeting of those interested at 2 o'clock to morrow afternoon, Saturday, at the Court-House, when the details will be arranged and the premium list prepared. That no squabble could arise afterwards over the matter, the stock was subscribed on the understanding that S. H. Baughman was to be president; George Miller Givens vice-president; and Forestus Reid, Robt Harris, Porter Sandidge, John G. Lynn, Sam M.
Owens, I. Mack Bruce, Thomas Robinson,
W. L. McCarty, J. W. James and J. G.
Weatherford, directors. The exhibition will be on the grounds of J. E. Farris, where a very good half-mile track is already in order and plenty of shade trees are found. It is not to be a Stanford fair, but one in which the whole county is expected to participate and aid in making a success. The date will probably be fixed for the last week in this month, 27-29. It will thus follow the Kirksville fair and precede the Danville fair, enabling those from a distance who wish to enter stock to take in the circuit while they are at it. The notice is a little short, but nearly all who would contest anyway will be ready and prepared to help in establishing on a sure basis the Lincoln County Stock Fair Association. It will of course be a rope fair this time, but the intention is to prepare everything in permanent order for next year.

FOUND.—Between this place and Rowland, a pair of toe slippers, No. 4. The owner can get them by paying for this notice.

ELOPED.—Kendrick Traylor, son of Mr.
Alex Traylor, eloped to Jeffersonville this week with Miss Lizzie Ashlock, where they were duly united in matrimony, leaving afterwards to make their home in the West.

THE Golden Rule Encampment of Odd Fellows elected the following officers for the next six months: Charlie Samuels, C.
P. J. A. Carpenter, S. W. J. Allen, H.
P. Hampton, S. N. E. Elmore, T. Jas-
T. Craig, J. W.

IN LOCK.—Mr. J. M. Harris, formerly of this county, but now of Salem, Ind., is here with friends. Since his last visit he has obtained a pension of $36 a month and an arrearage of $5,370. He lost a leg as the result of his army service.

THE calisthenic performance by the Lancaster club last night promised to be well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. In order to let the craft attend we went to press
in advance of its opening and defer comment till next issue.

THE seminary will open about Sept. 1st.
Prof. S. J. Pulliam, who was here yesterday, tells us. The tuition has been reduced, a thing that the patrons are sure not to kick about. The new professor bears some splendid testimonials to his ability and fitness and we are sure will give satisfaction.

THE Stanford base ball club has honored
the INTERIOR JOURNAL by naming itself for us. Albert Severance is Captain and we bet we have that it can wax any club of its age in Kentucky. It played the Lancaster yesterday and of course did them up, though it had not been decided at this writing.

THOSE who wish to avail themselves of the $12 excursion to Old Point next Monday can do so by either the 5 or the 7
o'clock train from Rowland that morning.
Tickets good for two weeks. The Chesapeake and Ohio is splendidly equipped for the comfort of excursionists and will do everything to make the trip pleasant.
Take our advice and go next Monday.

THE McElroy Gleaners, with the able supervision of Madams George H. Bruce and Harvey J. McRoberts, gave one of the best as well as one of the cheapest suppers that we have attended. The ices and cake were splendid and the tables were arranged both tastefully and comfortably. The Gleaners acted as waiters and did their work very nicely. The proceeds amounted to about $20.

IT was a mistake about the Lincoln Land Company deciding to abandon this field and it grew out of the fact that it expected to cease operations for a month or two to get its business out of the tangle it got into through the management of Mr.
Ottenheimer. The company has landed interests here to the amount of over $40,000
and could not leave were it so inclined. W.
H. Miller is now attending to its legal business.

MAC K BRUCE was not with the Sheriff's posse that went after Fish. He was summoned and never having heard of his shirking a duty, however unpleasant, we supposed he went. A reasonable cause prevented him this time, but he says it is about the first one he ever missed. Deputy Sheriff Olin Newland happened not to be with the party at the time of the shooting, having been detailed to take the guns to the depot.

HISTORY.—Messrs. Loveland & Mc-Laren are here delivering Baity & Per-rin's History of Kentucky to subscribers in this county. We have not had time to fully examine the copy left at this office,
but a cursory glance at the appendix shows
many more important men in this vicinity
than we had an idea of. The book is handsomely gotten up and subscribers pay $12, 50 for it, which includes the "sketch." There are 23 in Lincoln county.

RAINS have fallen in localities in this vicinity, but so far this immediate section has been denied the long hoped for wetting. It is getting to be a serious matter. Gardens have already burned up and corn is injuring badly. The above was written when the blizzing sun seemed determined to set the earth afire. Yesterday, however, a grateful shower came, followed by others,
and the prospect now is that the protracted drouth is about to come to an end.

THE report was current here that Hiram R. Hiatt had come from his home in the West and was breathing out threatening and slaughter against the posse that shot his brother Jim. It grew no doubt out of the fact that Mr. Hiatt passed through town Wednesday with a double barreled shot gun. To those with whom he conversed here he made no threats whatever.
He had not heard the full particulars of the shooting and was naturally indignant and said he intended to invoke the aid of the law in punishing those who did the shooting, if it was inexcusable. Mr. Hiatt is a man of too much sense as well as of too cool a temperament to make idle threats and attempt to bulldoze a lot of men acting under the law and doing nothing more than it was their duty to do. They all regret the necessity of shooting, but they could not do otherwise, besides we learn that young Hiatt blames himself more than anybody else for his misfortune.

—At Zug, in Switzerland, a terrible calamity occurred and half the new quays
on the lake shore sank; 40 houses, including an inn full of guests, were overwhelmed
and over a hundred of the sleeping inmates drowned.

MARRIAGES.

—Dr. E. D. Standford, of Louisville, was married yesterday to Miss Lorena
Scott, a wealthy young lady of Paducah.
We wish him much joy and hope that his matrimonial venture will bring as good fortune to him politically as it did to President Cleveland and Gen. Buckner.

RELIGIOUS.

—Rev. Percy G. Eison is holding a meeting at Rowland and large congregations attend. He will preach to-night and to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.

—Mr. James F. Huber, well known as a
Y. M. C. A. Secretary, State Visitor, State Sunday school Secretary, and leader in good works generally, will leave for his new home in Texas, near Colorado City, July 20.—[C. J.]

—"Calk sermon" for all the children of the town at the Baptist church on next Sunday, at 3 o'clock. Special missionary service for all christian workers at 11. By request the pastor will preach a special sermon on "Grace;" Ephesians 2:8,
at 8 o'clock.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—The wheat market in Chicago is weak
at 71¢ for August.

—Two thoroughbred pigs sold for $150
in Madison this week.

—Bourbon farmers say they will hold their wheat for 70 cents.

—A yield of 34 bushels of wheat is predicted all through Southern Kansas.

—It is estimated that not over 40 per cent of a tobacco crop has been planted in Christian.

—Phillips & Crozier bought three fine
yearling mare mules in Bourbon at $115.—
[Lebanon Standard.]

—Attention is called to the advertisement of the great horse fair to be given at Richmond. The management proposes to eclipse its former excellent exhibitions.

—WHEAT.—We are prepared to buy the new crop at the highest market price, delivered at Stanford, Rowland or any station in Lincoln county. J. B. Green will buy for us at Hustonville. Weaten & Menefee.

—E. Forman & Son bought 2,000 bushels of wheat at 65 cents. 150 cattle sold Monday at 2 to 3 cents and 47 broke mules from $80 to $200. Col. Tribble's crop of wheat will average 30 bushels to the acre
and is very fine.—[Richmond Climax.]

—Catalogues of the Mercer County Fair Association show a long and liberal list of premiums. It will be held at Harrodsburg, beginning August 9th and lasting 4 days. The printing, which was done by the Democrat, is the best of the kind we have seen.

—A letter from a correspondent at Whiting, Kansas, says: "Kentucky stock does well here. We have sold 48 head of shorthorns in the last 18 months from Grundy's McElroy's, Ray's, McCard's and Rogers' herds, at from $40 to $200 per head. Horses from Kentucky are also doing well."
—[Farmers Home Journal.]

Mexican Pensioners.

The following survivors of Mexican soldiers and widows belonging to Capt. Wm
Daugherty's company have been granted
pensions to date:

John Dickerson, John F. Higgins, David
Howard, Green Perkins, Clell R. Montgomery,
now of Columbus, Nebraska, Dr. M. D.
Logan, Boyle county; also H. K. Hutchinson, of Jack Hays, Texas Ranger; Skelton Coleman and Mrs. Sallie Baker, widow of John Baker, the two latter were in other commands.
G. H. McKINNEY.

In the pockets of a negro killed by lightning in Texas were found two horseshoe
magnets, two copper cents that had melted
together, a nickel that was partly melted
and stuck to his watch and the nickel rim
around his money purse was also melted.

OBITUARY

After a protracted illness our dear sister, Annie Bessey, fell asleep on Lord's day afternoon, May 29th, 1887. In the latter part of January she was stricken down with typhoid fever from which she never recovered. Her friends thought, when the fever left her, she would soon recuperate and be well again, but instead she fell a victim to consumption, which robbed her of her sweet, young life after a struggle of four months. Her death has cast a shadow over this community. Only 19 years of age, lovely and attractive, she will be sadly missed by all who knew her. Those who were with her during her illness, can never forget how anxiously she waited for the summons to come. The courage, fortitude, patience, resignation, calmness and cheerfulness she exhibited were certainly wonderful. Courage to meet her inevitable destiny; fortitude to bear up under her sickness and weariness; to endure the agony of separation from her beloved family and other dear and dear friends; patience to endure all her trials without a murmur or sigh of complaint; resignation in the belief that all is for the best; calm amid weeping, sorrowing relatives around her dying bed; cheerful in the thought that she must go alone, down the dark valley and touch the icy cold waters of the "River of Death." She made all the arrangements for her funeral, even to the placing of her hands in the attitude of death. Her loving family administered to her every need and want but to no avail. "The cord was gently loosed, the silver bowl broken," and Annie's voice hushed forever. Thus another home is made desolate and loved ones left to sigh.

"For the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still,"
We have been blessed by her life; in her death a golden link has been added to the chain that binds us to the throne of God. Will the Heavenly Father so strengthen her bereaved ones by His spirit and the consolation of His word as to make this affliction borne in such a way as to become his children?

"Dear as thou wast and justly dear,
We would not weep for thee;
One thought shall check the starting tear,
It is—that thou art free."

And thus shall faith's consoling power,
The tears of love restrain;
O who that saw thy parting hour,
Could wish thee here again.

Gently 'thy passing spirit fled,
Sustained by grace divine;
O, may such grace on us be shed,
And make our end like thine."

CHAPTER 12

AN ACT for taking the sense of the good people of this Commonwealth as to the necessity and expediency of calling a Convention to amend the Constitution, and to provide for ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State.

WHEREAS, Experience has pointed out the necessity of amending the Constitution and the expediency of calling a convention for that purpose; therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

§ 1. That at the next general election for Representatives to the General Assembly, it shall be the duty of the several sheriffs and other officers of election to open a poll for and make a return to the Secretary of State, for the time being, of the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representative who have voted at the said election for calling a convention for the purpose of re-adapting, amending or changing the Constitution.

§ 2. That any sheriff or other returning officer failing to perform the duty imposed by first section of this act shall be subject to a fine of six hundred dollars ($600), to be recovered by indictment thereof, and in any case having jurisdiction thereof, be removed from office by the court in which such conviction is had.

§ 3. That for the purpose of ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State in the year 1887, there shall be furnished, as hereinafter provided, to the sheriffs and other officers of election in August, 1887, a registration book, in which the officers of the election shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State at the said election. The registration book shall be in the hands of the officers of election, and shall have said registration books open for the record of said names between the hours of 6 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. on the day of the August 1887 election at all the voting places in this Commonwealth. And it shall be the duty of all citizens of this Commonwealth who are entitled to vote for Representatives, on the day of the next general election in August, 1887, to go before the sheriff and other returning officers of said election in the voting precinct in which they are severally entitled to vote, and cause themselves to be registered on the poll-book as qualified voters of this Commonwealth, and the names of any and all citizens living in the district known to said officers to be entitled to vote for Representative, or made known to them by evidence on that day shall be registered as not voting. And in the year 1887, no other officer shall be authorized to make any list or return of the qualified voters of this Commonwealth, nor shall any return thereof except the registration books and certificates provided for by this act be made, and all laws requiring list or returns of such qualified voters are hereby repealed, so far as the year 1887 is embraced therein. The total number of votes so registered shall be the true number of citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State, for the purpose of ascertaining whether a majority of all the citizens of this State, entitled to vote for Representative vote for calling a convention for the purpose of re-adapting, amending or changing the Constitution.

§ 4. The said registration books shall be appropriately ruled and headed, so that they may, and it is hereby enacted that the same shall, be the poll books for recording the votes for and against the calling of the constitutional convention, and for ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State. It shall be the duty of the said officers of election to provide to every voter the question, "Do you vote for calling a constitutional convention or not?" If such voter shall answer in the affirmative, his name shall be recorded as voting for said convention; if such voter shall answer in the negative, his name shall be recorded as voting against said convention, and if such voter makes no answer, his name shall be recorded as not voting on said question. And it shall be the duty of the officers holding the election at each voting place in the State to certify the total number of voters registered, and the number voting for calling a constitutional convention, and to make out a duplicate certificate showing said facts. The registration book shall be by them immediately sent, at the expense of the Commonwealth, by mail, to the Secretary of State, at Frankfort, Kentucky, and the duplicate certificate attached to the poll-book for the election of State officers, and return therewith as now directed by law.

§ 5. The Secretary of State in office at the convening of the General Assembly next after the election in August, 1887, shall, immediately upon the organization of same, transmit to each House a statement, prepared by him from the said registration books and poll-books, showing how many votes were at the said election cast in favor of said convention, and the total number of voters registered, whether voting for or against or not at all. The report shall be made up by counties. He shall retain the registration books for the use of, examination and inspection of the next General Assembly.

§ 6. It shall be the duty of the officers whose duty it is by law to compare and certify the votes for State officers, to make out from the certificates returned with the State election poll-books as above provided, and at the time they certify the votes for State officers, a certificate by voting places, showing the total number of votes registered and the number voting for calling a constitutional convention, and to send the certificate to the Secretary of State; and if the registration book provided for above shall, as to any voting place, be lost, destroyed or not returned, then the Secretary of State, in making the report to the General Assembly, shall use the information in the certificate as to any such district or precinct, and he shall, moreover, use the certificate showing that he has or has not the registration book for each voting place in each county named in said certificate.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, after adjustment of this General Assembly, to make out the form of a registration book and certificate to be made and used as herein provided, and to furnish the same to the Public Printer forthwith, and it shall be the duty of said Public Printer to make up and bind in the usual form one registration book, with a certificate thereon for each voting place in the State; also the duplicate certificate and the county certificate, and send the same to the several sheriffs, who shall see that they are delivered and used at the various voting places as herein required.

§ 8. That any officer failing to do or perform any of the acts or duties enjoined upon him by the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh sections of this act, shall be subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100), to be recovered by indictment of any grand jury in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be removed from office by the court in which said conviction is had.

§ 9. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to have this act advertised in one weekly newspaper in each county of this Commonwealth, wherein there is such paper published, for four weeks, and in one of the daily papers of the city of Louisville for thirty days immediately preceding the election, and in every county said Secretary shall cause to be posted at the court-house door a copy of this act, printed in hand-bill form, for at least four consecutive weeks before such election.

§ 10. It shall be the duty of the Public Printer to print ten thousand copies of this act upon a separate sheet of paper and deliver them to the Secretary of State, who shall forward the same to the county clerks of the various counties in this State in such numbers as to provide at least two copies thereof for each voting precinct; said clerks shall deliver the same to the sheriffs or other officers of election in the place thereof; and it shall be the duty of said sheriff or other officer to post one copy of said act at each voting place and another copy at some other suitable public place in said precinct four weeks prior to the election. Any officer failing to discharge the duties prescribed in this section of this act shall be fined for each and every failure twenty dollars, to be recovered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Approved January 18, 1886.

§ 11. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
